

8 DAY TOUR TO CROATIA & BOSNIA- HERZEGOVINA

04th August — 11th August 2007

visiting Omis , Split, Krka Waterfalls, Dubrovnik, Sibenik, Biokovo, Mostar & Medjugorje, Island of Hvar and many more

Saturday 04th August 2007

We meet up at Malta International airport at 02.20 hours for our direct flight to Split. Our flight will depart to Split at 04:20 hours arriving in Split at 06:05 hours. Upon arrival we are met by our coach driver and transferred to our hotel which is located in the region of Omis. Omis is a small town and port located at the mouth of the Cetina river, 26 kilometers away from Split. Since we will arrive before noon, hotel rooms will not be ready, and therefore we will organise a half day optional excursion to Biokovo Mountain, which is the highest mountain in the Dalmatian region. Return back late afternoon. For those who wish one can join the tour leader in the evening for an orientation walk around the area of the hotel.

Sunday 05th August 2007

Breakfast. Join us on our full day optional excursion to Mostar & Medjugorje (Bosnia-Herzegovina) to discover and experience the phenomenon that has made Medjugorje one of the most famous places of pilgrimage throughout the Catholic world, This place has been attracting millions of visitors every year since 1981 where the Virgin Mary has been relaying her message of peace to the seers. En route back to the hotel we will stop in Mostar, a place which has seen varied cultures and religions over the centuries and all evident in the building around this area. Return back to the hotel early evening in time for dinner.

Monday 06th August 2007

Breakfast. Today we have a full day optional excursion to Split & Trogir.

We will depart our hotel driving along the coast, before reaching the city of Split, which boasts of 17-century long history. The city has a lot of important historic sights and we will be able to view these on our walking tour through the old part of the town, where we will also visit the very well preserved Roman cellars and the remains of the Roman culture. Our tour will continue by coach to Trogir, where the whole town is like an open-air museum so just a stroll through narrow streets will be an unforgettable experience. The main attraction in Trogir is the Cathedral of St. Lawrence. This 13th century building is probably the finest example of sacral architecture in Croatia. Return back to the hotel early evening.

Tuesday 07th August 2007

Breakfast. Today we have another optional panoramic excursion to the Krka Waterfalls & Sibenik. The Krka National Park – A proclaimed national park in 1985; it is the seventh national park in Croatia. Driving along Makarska Riviera, we will have a photo stop above Primosten known for its vineyards. Upon arrival to Sibenik, we have an orientation walk around the town and some free time for personal sightseeing. Drive to Krka National Park to visit this beautiful park. We will return back to the hotel at around 19.00 hours.

Wednesday 08th August 2007

Breakfast. Today we have another optional excursion to one of the most beautiful and popular Croatian island, The Island of Hvar. Hvar has been built through time by notable domestic and foreign architects, and upon arrival one will be able to get a taste of its beauty, with a view of the seafront, the Venetian Piazza and the city walls surrounding the old part of the town. On our walking tour one will be able to visit the lovely Franciscan monastery from the 15th century, with its monumental cloister and the arsenal from the 13th century. We will also have some free time to swim or stroll. One should also not miss the opportunity to visit the fortress above the town from where there is a spectacular view of the town and the surrounding islands. This is Hvar at its best – natural, simple and relaxing! Return back to the hotel early evening.

Thursday 09th August 2007

Breakfast. A very early start to our full day optional excursion to Dubrovnik.

Dubrovnik - the city which is world-famous for its cultural heritage and beauty. It has been proclaimed by Unesco as a World Heritage Site. We will return back to our hotel at around 19.30 hours in the evening.

Friday 10th August 2007

Breakfast. Our day is left free for personal sightseeing or last minute souvenir shopping..

Saturday 11th August 2007

Early departure from our hotel to Split airport for our flight to Malta. Our flight is estimated to leave Split airport at 06.50 hours and arrives in Malta at 08.50hours with happy memories of Croatia & Bosnia – Herzegovina.
